

KPMG Agri bite

At KPMG our purpose is to fuel the prosperity of New Zealand, to achieve this we want to help our clients succeed by keeping them well informed.

This week we were privileged to have two very special visitors, Lord Michael Hastings Global Head of KPMG Citizenship International and Theo Rohfritsch, a young French man who has cycled 25000km around the world to raise awareness and money for the global water crisis. Article on Theo

Lord Hastings was here to talk through the UN sustainable development goals, and the value these bring to the world economically, culturally, socially and environmentally to benefit us and future generations. He visited schools and provided inspiration to businesses to see the value of engaging in the these goals.

KPMG took this opportunity to look at the importance of water in New Zealand from an economic, cultural, community and environmental perspective. Below is a link to our report Water and People' examines the
